BRIDE TOOK THE LEAD.

Come Along, Lindsey, Dear; Let's Go Home Now," She Said.

East St. Louis has produced the most interesting couple that has visited the Marriage License Office in this city in a long time. The bride is if years of age and the bridegroom is. Her wedding gown was black, over which she wore a long black shawl. Her bonnet, which dipped low over her eyes, was also black. He wore a weather-stained Oxford gray sult, with hig brown checks. His trousers were wide and short, and his cont sleeves only reached to his wrists.

The bridegroom gave his name as Lindsey Corlew, and the bride sald she was called Mrs. Minerva Thouvenier. Advancing up the promenade towards the City Hall, they remained about ten feet apart and uttered not a syllable. At the entrance he asked the way to the County Cierk's office. They were directed to Marriage License Clerk Leonhardt. After receiving the document the couple proceeded towards Justice Haughton's office. Corlew stopped a man on the street and asked where he could find the Squire.

Justice Haughton married them and then they started back to East St. Louis, They maintained a strict silence all the while they were in the vicinity of the City Hall and the bride speke only once, excepting to the Justice, and that was when they came out of his office. She turned about and sald; "Come along, Lindsey, dear; let's go home now."

TELEGRAPHER WEDS MILLINER. Couple Who Accompanied Them

Also Will Marry Soon.

Roy K. Tallout, telegrapher, formerly of Memphis, Tenn., and Miss Susie L. Muir, ex-milliner, fermerly of Pana, Ili., who met for the first time on August B and fell in love at once, executed another surprise yesterday by procuring a marriage licer se from Clerk Leonhardt and visiting Justice Haughton, who performed the wedding cer-emony.

Haughton, who performed the wedding ceremony.

They were to have wed to-morrow, but in order to surprise some interested person, whose identity they concealed, they advanced their wedding event two days. They were accompanied by Oral Downing, also a telegrapher, formerly of Dullas, Tex., and Miss Fanny Capel, formerly of Montgomery City, Mo., who expects to become an exmilliner about November I, when she will become Mirs. Downing.

The ladies came to St. Louis in August to attend the millinery sales in Wholesale Row. They resided at No. 181 Louis street, where the two telegraphers also stayed. The quartet met at the dinner table, and the sequence of the meeting was an engagement to marry. The ladies wrote home and received parental sanction.

BOY FALLS ON A PICKET.

Pointed Spear Head Pierces Hip,

Causing Serious Wound. Raymond Murphy, 16 years old, living at No. 2025 Eugenia street, feil on a picket fence in front of No. 3124 Morgan street yesterday afternoon, sustaining a painful wound in his hip. The boy was distributing circulars and the attempted to jump over the fence into the next yard. He fell on the fence and one of the fron pickets penetrated his hip. Doctor Nietert said the injury may prove to be serious.

"I'M IN A HURRY!" "I HAVEN'T TIME!"

By MARGARET L. BRIGGS.

(ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.)

Did you ever think how often you hear the expressions "I'm in a hurry" and "I haven't time"? Could anything be more absurd than the way some beenle, especially some women rush through life? The more trivial the incidents the greater the baste. It is perhaps natural that women who live out their lives at home attending to their household should regard the small matters of every day as fit occasions for haste, but it certainly has its humorous side when one has been buffeted by real events in the world.

The woman who takes things at home with such seriousness is always a nervous woman, and no amount of coaxing will get her to let up in her feverish haste to get things done on time. It's burry to get up in the morning, hurry to get breakfast, hurry to wash dishes, to sweep, to dust, to sew, to bake. "If you want anything of me you'll have to be quick, for I'm in a hurry," This is the refrain she sings all day long.

It's an awful trial to such a woman to have for a husband a deliberate fellow who usually arrives on time, but never appears to hustle. But I wonder what happens in homes where both husband and wife have the same affliction. I doubt if there are many such homes, for this haste habit is distinctly a feminine specialty and has a logical cause in a nervons condition, which in turn results usually from uterine derangement.

How often have you heard it said of one of these thin, nervous women, who has finally succumbed to the grim destroyer, "Poor soul, she's over her hurry now?" And you actually begin to wonder how she found time to die, for she was always saying she "badn't time to be sick."

Such women would either laugh or get angry if you told them that their excessive hurry was a symptom of disease. They would suggest that they left a good deal of work behind them any way, and it might be a good plan if more people had the same kind of disease.

These women do their work "by the hardest" and do unnecessary things all the time. Their judgment is faulty at all points. To accomplish trivial tasks they boldly jeopardize health, and harmony, and happiness. Their efforts at comfort and pleasure are mixed up with worry for fear something "isn't going just right." They completely fail to understand how to get the good out of life, and when the real cause of their unhealthy activity declares itself they are sick women. They have really worried their lives away and have accomplished nothing for themselves or others. You could not make a woman of this stamp take medicine for her nervousness, yet if ever a woman needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound it is this misguided soul who "has no time."

Her stock argument is, "Who'll do these things if I don't? Look nice, wouldn't it, if dust was an inch deep all over the furniture and all the clothes in the middle of the floor?"

You'll find such a woman "hasn't time" to keep her person scrupulously clean, that her teeth frequently go unbrushed for the same reason. Her personal appearance, too, is secondary to her duties. In fact, she "hasn't time" to wear her clothes if she buys them, or to make them if she does it herself.

It looks impossible to convince this woman of the error of her ways; but it's a pity, for there are many such women.

If some one who had influence with her would induce her to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on one pretext or another, and see to it that she found "time" to take it regularly for a while, this woman's nervous strain of haste would relax and presently she would begin to take an interest in something beside getting useless things done. This medicine of Mrs. Pinkham's is the true help for every woman v'tose nerves are in any way abnormal.

Why need women wait until they are physical wrecks with long neglected female troubles? Why not get some good out of life by finding "time" to pay attention to health?

HER HUSBAND IS LIVING.

Waterloo, Is., Oct. 13.-William Tuthill, mourned as dead since October 13, 1883, is said to have been located at the Soldiers' Home in California. Tuthill formerly lived Home in California. Tuthill formerly lived at New Albion, in lowa, where he became a member of the A. O. U. W. of lowa. He disappeared at Ottawa, Kas., and several years later his wife, Harriet A. Tuthill of Dubuque, brought suit to recover on a $2,000 policy held in the order. The case was tried twice in the District Court and is now pending in the Supreme Court. Tuthill was located, it is alleged, by an application his wife made for a pension, A search of the records, it is said, revealed that a man of the same name, company and regiment is being paid a pension in the Soldiers' Home of California.

BRIEF SESSIONS OF O. R. T. Second and Third Grand Vice Presidents Deposed.

The Order of Railway Telegraphers, in General Council in St. Louis, held a short session yesterday, at which A. B. Stillwell and A. L. Taylor, second and third grand vice presidents, respectively, were deposed, because their appointment was not deemed to have been in accordance with the laws of the organization.

J. J. Dunn, who had been deposed by expresident W. V. Powell, was reinstated as assistant general chairman. This completed the work of the Grand Council under one of the two specific purposes for which the special meeting was called.

A committee on revision of the constitution was appointed yesterday. It is com-posed of the following members: L. A. Tanquary, L. K. Marr, S. W. Hiller, F. C. McCullough, George Estes, R. J. Reynolds and T. W. Duffy. This committee will be-gin its work at once, and, after having made such changes in the organic law of made such changes in the organic law of the order as it deems wise, will submit the amended constitution to the convention for approval. The work of legislation will begin Monday, and probably will consume three or four days.

At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the delegates went in cars to the Anheuser-Busch Brewery, where they were entertained. A half-hour's session was held in the afternoon, at which resolutions of respect to the memory of Brother A. C. Eidson of Marshall, Colo., were adopted. Eldson was killed at a picnic near his home last August by a blow of a hammer, which slipped out of an athlete's hand.

BAD COMPLEX

Dry Thin and Falling Hair and Red Rough Hands Prevented by

CUTICURA SOAP.

MILLIONS USE CUTICURA SOAP exclusively for preserving, purifying. and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes, for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially to mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. Cuticura Soap combines delicate emollient properties derived from Cuticura, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odors. No other medic soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, viz., TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the BEST skin and complexion soap, BEST toilet and BEST baby soap in the world.
